

I object to television stations and news papers being owned by the same company. As in, channel 12 and the Az. Republic.